

Our work of the Week:

Galloping in the misty forest with deadly face, steaming like he was about to burst. Approaching the main ring, looking like it has been there for years. Suddenly, an arrow came shooting out like a ball of fire. The man started shooting there was no tomorrow rushing to the tree. Finally the war was over and there was only one team left...

Well done Grace Dube we all proud of you!!!!!!

Nanny McPhee and the Big Bang

Nanny McPhee is back!! But with a new adventure on her case. New family, new excuses for pretending to be sick and lots, lots more! It even has flying pigs- No I'm not joking!!

If you don't believe me, go and see it at the cinema, it comes out on the 26th March.

Percy Jackson and the Lightning Thief

Move over Harry Potter because trouble maker, Percy Jackson has problems at high school but that's the last of his challenges. It's the 21st century, but the Gods of Mount Olympus seem to have walked out of a Greek Mythology book and into Percy's life.

Percy has learned that his real Dad is Poseidon, the God of Water which means that Percy is a 'Demi God', half human and half god. But will this change his future?

Find out at the Cinema now, before tickets run out.

INTER VIEW ON 6 NATIONS RUGBY
Ms Soulsby said that she is really hoping that England wins. But she is sure that either France or Ireland and going to win. She is warning us however if England doesn't win she will be in a bad mood. She had to say that "Wales are a huge disappointment right now and Mr Greasley, there, there, never mind, there will always be another chance!"

Poor Mr Greasley and Wales!
