Spelling Bee

Over Lent, we have been learning loads of Science words. Did you learn them all? I bet you didn't!

The hardest one was deoxyribonucleic acid! I can't even say it!

The two highest scores from each class went into the spelling bee and then Mr Greasley tested these 12 children with some of the hardest words.

It was very close but in the end it was a battle between Stephanie and Yeukai.

Finally Stephanie was defeated (over one wrong word!) and Yeukai won.

She promised to let Stephanie read the book after she has, what a good friend.

Don't forget to collect your sponsor money- it all goes towards children in India who have very little benefits.

What do you call a rabbit with fleas?
Bugs bunny!

What do you get when you pour hot water down a rabbit hole?
A hot cross bunny!

Hi, Mridhu here,

Hope you enjoyed Nanny McPhee and the Big Bang! Its nearly the end of term - enjoy the

Nanny McPhee
(little c, BIG P!)

As you know, we all went to the cinema last Friday as a treat for being so wonderful during the inspections. We saw the film Nanny McPhee and the Big Bang. Did you enjoy the film? I hope you did. I loved it, my favourite part was when she made the piglet magic and they flew around the place. I really liked their synchronized swimming too. Did you like this part? You'll never forget it, it was so funny! The other bit I like the best was when Nanny McPhee got in the motor bike and drove to London with the two boys.

This weeks fashion winner is...

Miss Singh!

The chunky shoes are back!!!!

These chunky, hunky, funky shoes have totally taken over this school! That's why Miss Singh has won Fashion Of The Week award! Do you remember the Ofsted inspection? Well, poor Miss Singh had to wear flat shoes - we were all proud of you!!

Everyone loved the film and some of the teachers, especially Ms Soulsby, had a tear in their eye towards the end of the film.

We'd love to go to the cinema again. Nanny McPhee 3??
