Maple, Apple and Oak class visited museums in Oxford yesterday, they had a thoroughly enjoyable day and especially loved travelling by train. We are looking forward to the Bollywood event this evening raising money for our solar panel project. Just a quick reminder to all children and parents that school starts at 8.50am as we have had a number of children arriving either very early or late. Happy Friday to you all and have a super weekend!

If you would be interested in having a table, please complete the slip and put in the PTA post box in reception.

The table will be free of charge. We ask for 15% of your takings during the event and a donation of a raffle prize. All proceeds from this event will be raising funds for New Christ Church School.
